

MILESTONES OF UNIVERSITY HISTORY

1954

Creation of the Belarusian Institute of Mechanization and Electrification of Agriculture

1955

Foundation of the Faculty of Agricultural Mechanization

1957

Renaming to the Belarusian Institute of Agricultural Mechanization, creation of the Faculty of Agricultural Electrification

1992

Transformation into Belarusian Agrarian Technical University

1996

Foundation of the Business and management faculty

2000-2001

Opening of the farm machinery service faculty; transformation into the Belarusian State Agrarian Technical University

2004

BSATU was awarded the title of leading university in the industry

2011

Creation of the Engineering and Technology faculty, Research Institute of Mechanization and Electrification of Agriculture

2016

Cooperation agreement between BSATU and the government of the Freestate province of South Africa. 28 students from South Africa began studying at BSATU

2022

BSATU was awarded the International Business Award «Leader of the Year» for the professional training of specialists for the agro-industrial complex